Meet your knowledgeable guide and experienced driver as you embark on a captivating journey to Reims, a charming city nestled in the heart of the Champagne Region of France. Our first stop will be at the renowned Notre-Dame de Reims Cathedral, a true masterpiece of Gothic architecture that holds a special place in European history. This 13th-century marvel, a designated UNESCO World Heritage site, stands out for its distinctive features, including its mesmerizing lighting, exquisite statuary, and remarkable unity of design. Notre-Dame Cathedral boasts an impressive collection of statuary, comprising a staggering 2,303 statues. Among these, you'll find the famous Smiling Angel, whose cheerful countenance captures the spirit of the 13th-century Champagne School of artistry. In the French language, "Notre Dame" translates to "Our Lady," bestowing upon the cathedral its full name, "Our Lady of Reims." A pivotal moment in history unfolded within these hallowed walls on July 17, 1429, when Joan of Arc achieved the zenith of her illustrious career. It was on this fateful day that Charles VII was anointed as the King of France during a solemn ceremony held at the Cathedral of Reims. Joan's devotion was palpable as she knelt before Charles, embracing his legs, tears of joy in her eyes, and uttered these profound words: "Noble King, the divine will has been fulfilled, for I was chosen to lift the siege of Orleans and to escort you to the city of Reims for your sacred coronation. This signifies that you are the rightful and true King, the one destined to ascend the throne of France." It's worth noting that throughout history, every monarch of France received their coronation within the magnificent confines of Reims Cathedral. We can't leave the region without visiting and savoring some of the finest Champagne, all while gaining insights into the meticulous "Méthode Champenoise," followed by a delightful traditional French lunch. As the day draws to a close, we will be traveling back to Paris, where you can enjoy your evening at leisure. Overnight in Paris (Breakfast, Lunch)
